

2022 TREES FOR TROOPS TALKING POINTS

Program Background

- For 18 years, FedEx and the Christmas SPIRIT Foundation have worked together in bringing the true spirit of Christmas to U.S. troops through the Trees for Troops® program.
- FedEx lends its superior operations network to help military families get ready for the special moments the holiday season brings by delivering approximately 15,000 real Christmas trees.
- The generosity of tree farmers and garden centers across North America means real Christmas trees will be donated and provided to 84 military bases this year during the busy weeks leading up to Christmas.
- Trees for Troops has delivered over a quarter of a million trees to service members and their families.
- From hiring to supporting employees through our Veterans Business Resource Teams and through charitable giving, working closely with active duty military and veterans has always been at the core of FedEx Freight's mission.
- Projected numbers for 2022: an estimated 15,500 total trees, picked up from 54 locations and provided to 84 different bases.

Tag-A-Tree Program

- Each tree will include a personal note of gratitude and encouragement signed by FedEx customers, farmers, community members, school children and many more, aiming to bring a sense of normalcy and joy to those serving this holiday season.
- The Tag-a-Tree campaign allows FedEx's community and our customers to be a part of Trees for Troops program.
- Holiday wishes and supportive notes are penned on tree tags and attached to each individual tree FedEx delivers.
- Christmas Spirit Foundation also provides a list of participating tree farms and retail lots called "Official Locations" where the public can buy and donate a tree to be added to the program and delivered to a base.
- Many of these Official Locations offer online tree purchase options for shopper convenience.
